1968 Review Minutes of Activity Committee September (previously agreed)

1969 Songs of Praise

Members considered the option of combining the Songs of Praise with the Christmas Show.

Cllr Gray reported that she had made enquiries regarding the use of Salem Chapel for the Christmas Show but noted the Cor Rhosyn Ladies Choir had the Chapel booked for their fund raising evening on the 15th December.

Initial enquiries had proved the Choir would be happy to share the venue with the Children's Christmas Show, the show taking place from 5pm to 6-30 pm and the Choir then holding their event from 7 pm. It was resolved that the Community Council would provide the £150 funding required to cover the evenings expenses for the Choir and it would be advertised as a joint event with the Choir incorporating Songs of Praise (Christmas Carol Service) with free entrance with any proceeds from the collection being kept by the Choir with this event being preceded by the Christmas Children's show.
